ALL HAIL! U.S.A.

PATRIOTIC MARCH SONG

Written for and Dedicated to the

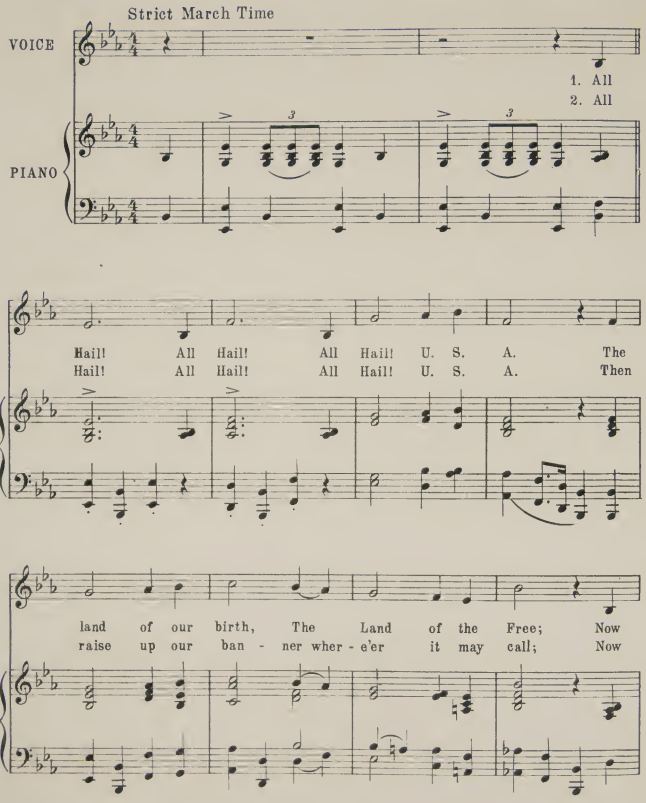
AMERICAN SOLDIER EVERYWHERE

Price, 10 cents

Published by
THEODORE SCHROEDER
295 Huntington Avenue
BOSTON, MASS., U. S. A.

ALL HAIL! U. S. A.

Words and Music by
THEODORE SCHROEDER



Strict March Time
VOICE
PIANO
1. All
2. All
Hail! All Hail! All Hail! U. S. A. The Hail! All Hail! All Hail! U. S. A. Then land of our birth, The Land of the Free; Now raise up our ban - ner wher - e'er it may call; Now

Copyright 1917 by Theodore Schroeder march we for-ward, march we on-ward, hearts brave and true, Our blow the bu-gle, beat the drum, march on to Vic-to-ry, Our Stars and Stripes now float on high for Peace and Lib-er-ty; We loy-al hearts are firm and strong, we trust in God for all; We stand as one man for our Flag, The Red, White and Blue; So know that Right must con-quer Might, Thro' all E-ter-ni-ty; So sing a-loud o'er land and sea, All Hail! The U. S. A.

sing a-loud o'er land and sea, All Hail! The U. S. A.